THE VIVALUXURY

So chic, so elegant, so versatile, I love that they can be used in and out of the pool and that they come in stylish neutral shades which add a very luxe touch to a pool area. Other highlights: they are very comfortable so we've been using them as a poolside lounger when we're not in water quite a bit, they are very lightweight and easy to move around, it takes no time at all to inflate them, which is very convenient.
